

Guest Preacher Today

We are grateful to Dr. Gerald Stevens, a Professor of New Testament and Greek at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, for preaching today while our pastor is on vacation. He and his wife, Jean, have been part of the FBNO family since 1988 and are both involved in our music ministry.

Do You Speak English?

Then you can help! Our ESL (English as a Second Language) Program will be on Wednesday nights beginning this fall. No experience is required. We'll provide training, materials and a teaching partner! Join us as we minister to immigrants from all over the world! For more information contact Katie Hodas at 482-5775 or katie@fbno.org.

So You Think You Can Sing?

Even if you don't think you can sing, we want to invite you to sing in our Men's Choir on August 8 and Women's Choir on August 15. Both choirs will meet in the sanctuary at 9:00 on the morning they sing to practice a song that the congregation will sing.

Tailgate Party & Ministry Fair

Wednesday, August 25 from 5 - 7 pm in the Fellowship Hall

Join us for a chance to learn more about the ministries of FBNO and to find out about opportunities to get involved. FREE hamburgers and hotdogs will be served. There will be an inflatable and games for children. Help us welcome new families to our church and city. Don't forget to wear your favorite team's colors.

Mothers of Preschoolers Beginning Soon

Join us as we explore Momology: The Art and Science of Mothering through fellowship, food, crafts, and guest speakers on Mondays from 9:30-11:30 am, twice a month or Wednesdays from 5:30-7:30 pm, twice a month. For more information stop by the MOPS table in the lobby or contact Juliet Comeaux at 444-4656.

Graceworks 101 Weekend This Friday & Saturday

This is the last summer session of Graceworks 101, this Friday and Saturday, August 6-7. Sign up in the lobby today or by email to christi.gibson@fbno.org.
